

Auction Update

January 25, 2012

Now that the new year has begun, it's time to start thinking about the auction again!

Next auction planning meeting – Tomorrow! Thursday, 1/26 at 6 pm. Please come if you would like to be involved in our biggest fundraiser of the year!

Auction procurement – Reminder that each family is required to procure at least $100 value in item(s) OR to donate $100 towards auction profits. The maximum credit for procured items is $100.

Procurement Drop-off Day – We are planning to have a Procurement Drop-off Day on Friday, February 10th and February 24th. February 24th will be the last day that we will accept items so that we can prepare the Auction Catalog. If you are able to volunteer to collect items during morning drop off or at afternoon pick up, please let us know.

Volunteering – The auction is a great way to get your volunteer hours in for the year. Reminder that 40 hours are required (20 for single parents). We need volunteers now, during the week of the auction and on the day of the auction. Be on the lookout for the next auction update with a list of opportunities and sign-up sheet.

Class Projects – A reminder to the Room Parents that we will need to know the final decision of what the class project will be by 1/31/12. Thank you!

If you have any questions, please call the school office (206-725-0780) or e-mail us at auction@seattlestpaul.org
